

Professional Engineering Services

Guardian Digital Professional Engineering Services is a menu of application and system engineering options unique to Guardian Digital. Designed to provide the flexibility to customize any of Guardian Digital's security and productivity applications to perfectly fit the demands of any corporation, Guardian Digital Professional Engineering Services are cost-effective and the best way to ensure optimum functionality for corporate networks. Guardian Digital technical engineers will work with you to deliver ideal solutions through software development services, system architecture and design services, and authoritative advice.

Guardian Digital Professional Engineering contracts are budget-friendly, flexible, and can be tailored to correspond with the exact needs of any corporation. Easily gain access to Guardian Digital's technical engineers and development team to reduce time to market and increase productivity by leveraging the networking and security expertise from the most authoritative Linux and security source available.

Open Source
Flexibility for Ideal
Network Solutions

Professional Engineering Services

Enhancing Security and Productivity of Corporate Networks

Guardian Digital
165 Chestnut Street
Allendale, NJ 07401

Ph: 201-934-9230
Fax: 201-934-9231
1-866-GD-LINUX

www.guardiandigital.com

Guardian Digital can work with your IT staff to develop custom solutions for your enterprise. Our engineering staff can provide programming resources in all aspects of project & system development including:

- Application and Kernel Tuning & Modifications
- Security Resources (including auditing, firewalling, and intrusion detection)
- Web Application Security Audits
- Application Development, Program Changes, and Porting from Other Platforms
- Large Enterprise Deployment (including fault-tolerant designs, redundancy, and backup)
- Security Assessment & Design
- E-Commerce Engineering (including custom modifications and more)
- Package Development
- Advice & Development of Network Management
- Network Architecture Development
- Integration with Existing Network
- System Programming Changes, Architecture, & Integration
- Package & WebTool Development and Design
- Hardware Planning;
- Scalability Requirements;