

Internet Security Portfolio

FROM GUARDIAN DIGITAL

"The Guardian Digital open source portfolio of products and services meet the stringent security and productivity requirements defined by AT&T New Zealand. Their unique integration of applications increase network and user productivity, while powerful security features counter the most persistent threats to enterprise customers."

- Jeff Rapp,
Asia-Pacific solutions architect, AT&T

EnGarde Secure Linux

The perfect platform to provide all the services necessary to create a secure, versatile online presence.

Secure Mail Suite

Leverage email productivity and security applications while eliminating junk mail and other threats.

EnGarde Workgroup Productivity

Collaborate with co-workers using efficient applications designed to share resources in dynamic environments.

Secure VPN Server Suite

Safely extend the reach of the corporate network for both mobile users and branch offices using the latest security techniques.

Internet Acceleration & Management Server

Enhance the speed & performance of corporate network resources while increasing security and access.

Internet Defense & Detection System

Increase network activity awareness and track suspicious activity through real-time monitoring and reporting.

Corporate Commerce Suite

Leverage the vast potential Internet customer base to immediately begin selling online using the most powerful name in e-commerce.

Why Guardian Digital

- 100% Open Source Architecture
- Low Administrative Overhead, High ROI
- Proactive Protection Through Engineered Security
- Simplified Web-based Management
- Integrated Security & Productivity Applications
- Versatile, Effective Features
- Adapts to Most Demanding Environments
- Maintenance & Support Included